

Young People; General Support

Kooth.com

<https://www.kooth.com/>

The service will offer face-to-face counselling through young people's centres and some schools across Cornwall. It also includes a free online counselling and support.

BROOK

<https://www.brook.org.uk/find-a-service/centre/pool-main-centre>

Offering free and confidential sexual health advice and contraception to young people under 25.

Brook Young Fathers Service

<http://www.makingthelink.net/case-study/brook-young-fathers-cornwall>

The Brook Young Fathers group supports young dads in Cornwall to develop their parenting skills, including learning about how to keep babies and young children safe around the home.

Young People Cornwall

<http://www.youngpeoplecornwall.org/>

Various projects including mobile outreach, young centres, mental health and anti bullying projects.

WILD

<http://www.wildproject.org.uk/>

Specialist service for young mothers under 23 years and their children.

Babble – for young carers

<https://babble.carers.org/>

Babble has been created by Carers Trust as an online space where those aged under 18 who are caring for a family member or friend can chat, share their experiences and access information and advice.

Savvy Cornwall

<https://www.savvykernow.org.uk/>

A hub of information for young people. Savvy Kernow keeps you in the know about Young Person Friendly Services in Cornwall and the Isles of Scilly.

Head Start Kernow

<https://www.cornwall.gov.uk/health-and-social-care/childrens-services/cornwall-childrens-trust/working-together/headstart-kernow/> is a new Big Lottery funded project aimed at 10 to 14 year olds to bring about better outcomes for these young people. Only operating in certain localities. Tel: 01872 32 6345 emailed Headstart. waiting for him to come back with an update.

Cornwall Council: Young People Leaving Care

<https://www.cornwall.gov.uk/health-and-social-care/childrens-services/children-in-care/supporting-young-people-leaving-care/>

Cornwall's 16 Plus Team is formed as a partnership between the Local Authority and Carefree. Carefree provide a commissioned service and work with one third of all care leavers from Cornwall. Together we aim to improve the life chances of young people living in and leaving Local Authority care.

Young Addaction Cornwall – Y-ZUP

<http://www.addaction.org.uk/services/young-addaction-yzup%20>

The YZUP Addaction service provides a targeted and specialist outcome focused, recovery oriented, community alcohol and drug treatment system for young people.

Safer Cornwall; Young People

<http://safercornwall.co.uk/young-people/>

Aims to show young people how to stay safe and who to contact if they feel that they need any advice.

Get My First Job

<https://www.getmyfirstjob.co.uk/>

- is a website that connects young people with opportunities for apprenticeships and traineeships in their area. It also offers resources for candidates and the professionals supporting them.

Cornwall Night Stop

<http://www.trurodiocese.org.uk/2015/09/could-you-provide-a-young-person-with-shelter/>

Cornwall Night Stop is a project being developed by the Cornwall Independent Poverty Forum and the Diocese of Truro in partnership with St Petroc's Society. Cornwall Night Stop will initially operate as a pilot project. To express an interest or for more information contact Andrew.yates@truro.anglican.org or Paul.green@truro.anglican.org

Young People; Career and Skills Support

Skills for Young People

If you're 16-24 this project offers you access to a range of vocationally based activities that will provide you with crucial skills needed in today's workplace. You may even move onto employment, volunteering, traineeships, apprenticeships or education. To be eligible you need to be unemployed or at risk of dropping out of education or training. You will also need to be in certain priority groups.

SkillsforYoungPeople@cswgroup.co.uk

Your Way

<http://your-way.org.uk/>

A partnership between youth, mental health and volunteer services along with local young people (11-19). We provide youth services and involve young people all aspects of service design, delivery and evaluation. Young people can access information, advice and guidance, counselling, mentoring, support and youth work. They also have opportunities to volunteer in their communities, whilst earning rewards for their contribution.

RIO; Gamechanger

Working with young people aged 15-24 who are at risk of becoming NEET (not in education, employment or training) or who are currently NEET to increase their confidence and skills and enable them to explore and move into fulfilling careers. Ring 08458621288 and ask for Game Changer team or email liseve.fierens@realideas.org to make a referral.

Princes Trust

<http://www.princes-trust.org.uk/>

Support available for young people 13 – 30. Grants available to support with training and returning to work, self-employment support and courses.

RIO; Talent Match

<http://www.talentmatchcornwall.org/>

Aims to help 18-24 year olds who have been unemployed for a year or more to find work through developing their professional skills and confidence and connecting them with opportunities for work, education and training. Talent Match offers support and guidance from other young people who have been in a similar situation. Helen.Power@realideas.org

National Citizens Service

<http://www.ncsyes.co.uk/>

National Citizen Service (NCS) is an once-in-a-lifetime experience for all 16 – 17 year olds that builds skills and confidence and helps them get ahead in work and life. The programme also helps your teenager connect to your local community through social action projects designed and delivered by young people. Locally you can email smithk@ypc.org.uk for more info.

National Networks for Collaborative Outreach

<http://www.hefce.ac.uk/sas/ncco/find/>

The National Networks for Collaborative Outreach (NNCO) scheme aims to encourage more young people into higher education (HE). It brings together universities and further education colleges into local networks to provide coordinated outreach to schools and colleges. Local contact for Cornwall College – Ruth Bennetts ruth.bennetts@cornwall.ac.uk

This is not an exhaustive list. If you spot anything that needs removing, amending or adding please email emoseley1@cornwall.gov.uk